

1982

AROUND THE GALLERIES

By Da

THE Community Arts Project has invited the public to participate in an "inter-action" event at their new centre, St Philips School, tomorrow at 4 pm.

Several big drawings by Manfred Zylla on the theme of oppressive bureaucracy will be on exhibition. Paint will be provided for anyone to change the drawings as they please and the results will be on exhibition at the school until June 26.

A community students' music group will play at the opening and a drama group from Mbekweni will present the play Cry No More.

City Arts Project invites public . . .